New Year, New Goals

Greetings!

Happy New Year!

The holidays are over, and we're onto a fresh start in the new year. We're always ambitious this time of year, so it's the perfect time to set some goals (organizational or otherwise!)

We'll teach you how to set and stick to goals, and keep you organized along the way.

Cheers to 2012!

Happy Organizing!

Quotable

"The establishment of a clear, central purpose or goal in life is the starting point of all success."

-Brian Tracy

"Having an exciting destination is like setting a needle in your compass. From then on, the compass knows only one point-its ideal. And it will faithfully guide you there through the darkest nights and fiercest storms."

-Daniel Boone

Goals in 2012

'Tis the season for goal-setting! Fresh from January 1, we're all ready to take on some lofty ambitions. It's easy to lose track of progress, but having a plan to succeed will make the process much easier!

Setting, Achieving, and Sticking with Goals

1. Choose a Goal - Make sure it isn't overly daunting, but still challenging. Choose something that will push you beyond your comfort zone and help you to grow.
2. Make a List or Chart - Writing things done only encourages the process! Keep the list in view every single day.
3. Cross it Off - When you accomplish a goal, cross it off your list! It gives you that sense of accomplishment when you realize you've reached a milestone.
4. Rewards - If it suits you, choose some rewards for a job well done. They can be small, or more substantial for a bigger goal. Pick things/experiences that will motivate you!
